

I do not believe the FCC is needed to enforce the voluntary band plan on 160 meters because we ham's are self policing and can handle the situation. Most ham's would follow the ARRL band plan as we have done since the early 80's. Do not allow a few elitist's to dictate the band.